
Passaic Valley Water Commission Employee Will Lead American Water Works Association, New Jersey Section

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

(Clifton, N.J. – March 30, 2023) Last week, Passaic Valley Water Commission's (PVWC) Joe Aldighieri was named Chairperson of the American Water Works Association's New Jersey section (AWWA NJ). American Water Works Association is the largest organization of water supply professionals in the world with more than 4,300 utilities holding active memberships.

As Chairperson, Aldighieri will lead the New Jersey Section in its efforts to promote the understanding and appreciation of water resources, as well as to advance the science and practice of water treatment and distribution. "I am honored to serve as the AWWA NJ Chairperson and I am looking forward to working with young water professionals to ensure succession planning and to help lead future generations in the industry," said Aldighieri. "I am committed to promoting collaboration, innovation, and excellence in the water industry, and will continue to work to ensure that our communities have access to the clean and reliable water they need," he continued.

Aldighieri has been with Passaic Valley Water Commission for over 10 years, where he is the Chief Project Coordinator, overseeing various projects done by PVWC employees and contractors. He has been actively involved in AWWA NJ committees and events since 2014.

"Congratulations to Joe Aldighieri for being named the Chairperson of AWWA NJ Section," said PVWC Executive Director Jim Mueller. "His wealth of knowledge and experience in the water industry will be a valuable asset to the organization."

Aldighieri will serve in this role for a one-year term. The Passaic Valley Water Commission family and the AWWA NJ extend their congratulations to Joe Aldighieri on this well-deserved honor.

Other PVWC employees actively involved in the AWWA include:

- Alexandra Wells, who also won the Thomas J. Dawson Award, is a member of the PE Membership and Licensed Operators Committees
- Bryan Frierson - Membership Committee
- CJ Mills - Chair, Licensed Operators Committee
- Marisah Potkalesky - Chair, Public Information Committee
